WARSAW, June 13.

YNIEC is at laſt left by the Ruſſians, and has ſurrendered to the Auſtrians.

June 23. The Ruſſian Ambaſſador here has received diſpatches from Field-Marſhal Count Romanzow, confirming the account of the concluſion of the armiſtice between the Ruſſians and Turks at Giurgo, on the 30th of laſt month.

LONDON.

June 25. On Monday near 200 Blacks, with their ladies, had an entertainment at a publick houſe in Weſtminſter, to celebrate the triumph which their brother Somerſet had obtained over Mr. Stuart his maſter. Lord Mansfield's heath was echoed round the room, and the evening was concluded with a ball. The tickets for admittance to this black aſſembly were 5 ſhillings each.

June 29. Friday morning, at nine o'clock, came on before Dr. Betteſworth, in the Prerogative Court, Doctor's Commons, the final pleadings relative to the ſeparation of Lady Warren againſt Sir George, her huſband, for cruelty, and thereby requiring a ſeparate maintenance, and ſeparation, a menſa et thoro.

The Council for the defendant reſted the cauſe in reply to the plaintiff's council, by going into the queſtion at large, and examining, from the principles of chriſtianity, the civil and canon laws, what cauſes ſhould eſtabliſh divorces. In reſpect to the firſt, they obſerved, that our Saviour had ſettled that matter in reply to certain ſects, when aſked for what reaſons a woman ſhould be divorced from her huſband, who anſwered, "except a woman commit adultery ſhe ſhall not be put away:" and in reſpect to the latter, both the civil and canon laws ſaid, that nothing but a ſeries of cruelty, in which it could be fairly proved a woman was in a preſident eſſence of her life, could legally obtain a divorce. Now, ſaid they, on the whole of this matter, nothing appears, on theſe principles, that can juſtify a ſeparation. They likewiſe obſerved, that the preſent charge principally turned on two particular points; the one, an aſſault made by Sir George on his lady, one morning, on the 11th of March, 1771, and the other on the 8th of May following, and that in both theſe caſes he was, as a huſband, juſtified in ſo doing; as by the firſt he only wanted that conſolation and benevolence which is the privilege of every huſband to aſk, whenever he thinks fit (though they granted the time, being a little after breakfaſt, and was rather unuſual;) and by the latter, it was the natural conſequence of her forcibly refuſing to go down to his country ſeat at his requeſt.

The Council for the plaintiff principally confined themſelves, in reply, to theſe laſt charges, and they ſaid, "That, in reſpect to the firſt, the night preceding his aſſault after breakfaſt, the parties had lain in the ſame room together, and that it was hardly probable that a man married ſeven years, having that advantage, ſhould be ſolicited the very next morning by the charms of a woman whom he had previouſly ſo much at command; that therefore the bruiſes and ſcratches ſhe received in this ſcuffle were not, nor could be accidental, as were alleged, or the effects of violent love, but rather of predetermined malice; and, in reſpect to the ſecond charge, that of hurrying her into the country againſt her conſent, ſhe was juſtified in refuſing, and uſing reſiſtance, as from the repeated bad behaviour of Sir George, with the circumſtances of being packed into a hackney-coach, at an unſeaſonable time of night, without any other attendant but her maid, and two ſtrange men of Sir George's appointing, ſhe had reaſon to believe he meant to convey her to a private mad-houſe. They were therefore, on the whole, of opinion, that ſhe not only acted from the dictates of ſelf-preſervation in both theſe inſtances, but that ſhe had good grounds to expect, from the deciſion of the Court, a ſeparate maintenance ſuitable to her rank and dignity."

Theſe pleadings being finiſhed, Dr. Betteſworth gave ſentence to the following purport: He obſerved, that it always gave him great pain to interfere in deciding on the intereſts of two people, whoſe happineſs and concerns ſhould be ſo inſeparably connected as man and wife; but that ſitting in his then capacity, was obliged to it. Being therefore under this preſſure, he ſaid he could not conſult his own particular feelings as a man, but give opinion according to the written laws as they preſcribed. He then read a paſſage in quotation, the purport of which was, that nothing but adultery, or a ſeries of cruel treatment, wherein it could be fully proved a woman riſqued her life by cohabiting with a man, could licence a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, or a ſeparation a menſa et thoro; and tho' there were ſome witneſſes on the part of the plaintiff, who appeared, they believed the latter, yet it evidently appearing to him, from their poſitive teſtimony, that no ſuch danger was to be dreaded; he was therefore induced to diſmiſs the citation in favour of Sir George Warren, the defendant.

The pleadings on this cauſe took up 22 hours; beginning at nine o'clock in the morning, and ending at eight at night. One of the Council for the defendant (Dr. Barrell) had the humanity to keep the Court and audience ſweating exactly three hours and forty-five minutes; and what was more entertaining, above three hours and forty minutes of it were taken up in going over the ſame ground of the Council who had ſpoke before on the ſame ſide.

Friday morning ſix ſoldiers belonging to the guards, ſaid to be all Scotchmen, were flogged in St. James's Park, for firing three rounds each, on Saturday laſt, by way of bravado, over young Allen's grave, in the church-yard of Newington-Butts, Surry.

July 1. Yeſterday the Sheriffs had another attachment againſt them for the ill conduct of the city officers for 320l. It is a peculiar grievance of their office, that officers are appointed by the Court of Aldermen, who connive at their miſconduct in the preſent Sheriffalty. They cannot be diſplaced by the Sheriffs as they may in the county.

July 3. A correſpondent in the North of Ireland, remarks on the latter part of the Lord Lieutenant's ſpeech, where his Lordſhip ſays, I flatter myſelf that thoſe deluded perſons are fully convinced of the atrociouſneſs of their attempts, and the impoſſibility of effecting any of the purpoſes intended by them; the writer aſſures us, what deſigns ſome deluded perſons might have is unknown; but it is plain that food and work were the wants of the greateſt part, and which he is concerned that they are told by his Lordſhip, it is impoſſible to effect.

Another proſecution is commenced againſt Mr. William Woodfall, by Mr. Garrick, for having inſinuated in a certain poem, intitled, The lamentation of Roſcius for the Loſs of his Nyky, that Mr. G. had been guilty of a deteſtable crime in conjunction with Bickerſtaff, the author, who has abſconded. Mr. G. has, we hear, laid his damages at 10,000l. Dr. Kenrick is the preſumed author.

The proſecution commenced againſt the ſame Printer by the Carron Company, is compromiſed on his aſking pardon, and paying ſixty guineas to the fund eſtabliſhed for the decayed workmen at the Carron Foundery. Mr. Priddle, an attorney, has entered an action againſt the ſame printer, for inſerting a letter ſigned "Robert Holloway," in which Mr. P's. character is ſaid to be aſperſed. Mr. Priddle was concerned for Somerſet, the Negro, againſt Mr. Stewart, his maſter.

Extract of a Letter from the Borders of the River Wiſtul, June 18.

"The Pruſſian Troops are in poſſeſſion of all Poliſh Pruſſia, except Dantzick and Thorn; and they will come under the protection of the King of Pruſſia as ſoon as peace is concluded."

July 6. The laſt letters from Hamburgh adviſe, that the famous Marſhal of the Confederates of Poland, Pulawſky, was lately ſurprized and taken at Lublenier in Sileſia, by the Pruſſian Major de Reitzenſtein, who ſent him to Potſdam, from whence he will probably be ſent to Warſaw, where he will meet with his puniſhment, unleſs he can clear himſelf from the accuſation laid againſt him of being the author of the attempt which was made againſt the life of the King of Poland.

It appears that there has been within the laſt five years, a circulation of paper credit, with the name of Pordyce affixed to it, to the amount of four million and upwards.

Friday there was a Common-Hall, for the purpoſe of declaring the election of Sheriffs for the year enſuing; when, ſome time previous to the opening, Capt. Allen addreſſed the Livery from the gallery on the right hand ſide of the ſteps leading to the Council Chamber, to the following purport.

"That being prevented the preceding Common-Hall from having the inſtructions to the City Repreſentatives then recorded, he thought it his duty as a Liveryman, and one intereſted in the welfare and proſperity of the city, to warn them againſt ſuch artifices on that day; and as, from the frequent ſpecimens they had of the conduct of the Lord Mayor, they had little to hope. He therefore warmly recommended to them to have the inſtructions recorded previous to any other buſineſs being entered into."

The Sheriffs then aſcended the Huſtings, when the ſtate of the poll was declared to be in favour of Mr. Alderman Oliver, and Wilkin Lewes, Eſq; which being, as uſual, reported, the Lord Mayor, attended by Alderman Rolleter, Mr. Common Serjeant, and the Sheriffs, opened the Court anew. As ſoon as his Lordſhip had taken his ſeat, Capt. Allen applied to him to have the inſtructions recorded, which the other would not permit. This refuſal brought on the hiſſes and groans of the Livery, at the ſame time that the buſineſs of the election was declaring; which being finiſhed, the Lord Mayor got up, and immediately went away.

As ſoon as his Lordſhip was gone, Capt. Allen addreſſed the Livery in a ſhort ſpeech, telling them, "that he had been, before the opening of the Common-Hall, apprehenſive of what would happen; and that they might blame themſelves for permitting any buſineſs to be done till their inſtructions were firſt attended to."

The Lord Mayor was on the Huſtings at 12 o'clock, which prevented the Hall from being ſo full as may be expected, the uſual hour of his attendance being one o'clock; and ſo great a hurry was he in to be gone, that, as ſoon as the election was declared, he went off without recollecting to adjourn the Hall, or giving time to the Sheriffs elect to return thanks to the Livery for their election.

It is aſſerted that the aſſociation at the Feathers, having acted in contradiction to certain antient penal ſtatutes, will be attacked next winter by the Biſhops in Weſtminſter-Hall. The deſign was meditated before the preſentation of their petition, but prudently dropped till their orthodox emiſſaries could prepare the temper of the nation to admit the infliction of wholeſome ſeverities.

The Ohio petition being now diſpoſed of, the petition of 180 gentlemen for lands in the neighbourhood of the Miſſiſippi, which was lately preſented to the Privy Council, is expected ſpeedily to be heard; as well as the petition for erecting a civil government in that part of the Britiſh territories.

Extract of a Letter from Auſtria, June 24.

"The affairs of Poland will not be ſoon adjuſted as we once had reaſon to hope. It is however aſſured, that the Court will publiſh a manifeſto, ſetting forth that it has no intention to diſmember Poland, but only to take poſſeſſion of territories which formerly belonged to Hungary. The courier expected from Peterſbourg arrived at Vienna the 13th inſt. but the contents of his diſpatches have not yet tranſpired."

July 7. In conſequence of the unwearied applications of the cabinet-makers, the Treaſury Board have at length given orders for the ſeizure of a large quantity of contraband goods, lately imported under the ſanction of the Venetian Reſident; and on Friday and Saturday laſt, ſeveral officers of the Cuſtoms, attended by ſome cabinet-makers, ſeized in the houſes of Meſſrs. Walle and Reilly in Sherrard-ſtreet, Golden-ſquare, and Mr. Cullens in Greek-ſtreet, Soho, ſeveral hundreds of chairs and ſofas, near a ton of curled hair, a large quantity of braſs nails, a great number of marble tables, ſome very rich ſlab frames, carved and gilt, ſilk lace, tapeſtry, &c. The whole of which was immediately conveyed to the King's warehouſes at the Cuſtom houſe. Although the quantity of theſe goods is amazingly great, yet they are ſaid to be not above one fourth of the before-mentioned importation, conſigned to Baron Berlendii, the Venetian Reſident. The abovementioned tapeſtry was ſaid by Mr. Reilly, to belong to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, and he inſiſted the ſeizing officer had nothing to do with it. The officer very deliberately examined it, and replied, "His Royal Highneſs is a very good man, but you need not be under any apprehenſion for its ſafety, for I will lock it up very carefully in his brother's warehouſe."

July 8. The following is a certain fact:—Some papers of importance to the Wal——— family, were carried by an attorney of Lincoln's-Inn, one day laſt week, to a celebrated Counteſs, erroneouſly reported to be a r——l Du——s, with a declaration on the part of the lawyer, that they muſt, to be valid, be alſo ſigned by her illuſtrious conſort. This threw her Ladyſhip into great confuſion, and put her to the neceſſity of ſatisfying him; which ſhe at laſt moſt implicitly did, that the ſignature he required, in reality, had no legal connection with her affairs.

The ſquadron of men of war lately ſailed for Newfoundland, under the command of Commodore Shuldham, conſiſts of 13 ſail, including ſloops.

A new redoubt and half-moon are ordered to be built at Dover Caſtle, on the ſide next the ſea; the former to mount 12, the lattter 26 guns.

July 9. Application has been made to a Great Perſon, by the principal creditors, to have Mr. P. ſent for from France; and we are told, that if he does not appear to the ſtatute, which ends the 16th inſt. application will be made to the Court of France to have him delivered up.

Extract of a Letter from Poland.

"On the 12th of June one of the Pruſſian Generals, with a detachment from the main army, went to the town of Braikow, where there is a ſmall garriſon, now in the hands of the Crown, and demanded the keys of the Caſtle in his maſter's name. The Commandant anſwered him, that the caſtle had been entruſted to him to guard by the King of Poland, his maſter, and that he would not ſurrender it to any one but to him, or his expreſs order. The Pruſſian General finding he was threatened with a warm reception, if he uſed any force, diſpatched a meſſenger to the Grand Camp at Marienwerder, to receive orders from his maſter how he ſhould proceed. But the King not having yet returned from Lithuania, the affair is ſtill in ſuſpence. We are impatient to hear how it will be determined.

July 10. Our Court, ſays an anonymous correſpondent, have actually refuſed to accede to the new treaty proposed by her Czariniſh Majeſty to the Courts of London, Vienna, Berlin, Stockholm, Copenhagen and Turin. All the other powers have ſigned it.

We hear that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has not been a little mortified at being obliged to pay ſuch honours to his Secretary Sir George Macartney, whilſt he himſelf is only conſidered in the light of a mere ſtate machine.

The preſent Court of Eaſt-India Directors have acquired great reputation by their late noble ſupport of publick credit, and we hear they are generouſly determined to make a minute examination into private grievances. On Wedneſday laſt they gave a moſt honourable teſtimony in favour of Capt. Donnellan's character, who among other gentlemen, had felt the hand of oppreſſion abroad, and had no redreſs to expect but in ſubmitting his conduct to the reviſion of the direction in this country.

'Tis eaſy to read in the refuſal faces of the miniſtry, the terror and apprehenſions they are under, leſt the report of the Auſtrian Netherlands being ceded to France, ſhould prove true; well knowing that ſhould it do ſo, it muſt occaſion a war, and a war muſt be attended with the loſs of their places, perhaps even with the loſs of their heads.

PERTH-AMBOY, Auguſt 22.

Thurſday laſt the General Aſſembly of the Province of New-Jerſey, met in this City, when his Excellency Governor Franklin, was pleaſed to open the Seſſion with the following Speech:

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

IT affords me particular pleaſure to have it in my power, at the opening of this Seſſion, to congratulate you on the addition which, by his Majeſty's gracious allowance, has been made to the number of Repreſentatives of the good people of this province. An event at which I the more rejoice, as I flatter myſelf it will be a means of uniting all the parts of the colony, in promoting many ſchemes of publick utility, which have hitherto been too much neglected.—A fatal ſentiment has long unhappily prevailed in this province, that every meaſure which muſt be attended with expence, and has not a tendency to benefit every part of the province equally, ought not to be adopted by the Legiſlature.—It is, however, ſcarcely poſſible to contrive any ſcheme for the publick advantage, which can have ſo extenſive an effect. In the nature of things, ſome ſituation muſt be more immediately benefited than others; yet, whatever procures an advantage to any part of the province, which it did not enjoy before, is ultimately a benefit to the whole. For want of a due attention to this truth, this province, which has equal natural advantages with any of the neighbouring colonies, is, though one of the moſt ancient, ſhamefully behind all the others in its trade, roads, bridges, publick buildings, and ſuch other improvements as denote a ſenſible and ſpirited people. Every unneceſſary expence ſhould indeed be carefully avoided, but it is neither conſulting the intereſt nor reputation of the province to decline any expence which the publick good does at any time require.

Gentlemen of General Aſſembly,

In the year 1765, the Aſſembly thought proper, on my recommendation, to grant a bounty upon the raiſing of flax and hemp, and planting of mulberry trees in this colony, for raiſing of raw ſilk. The bounty on the two firſt articles has, I am told, been productive of very good effects; but the bounty on the latter has, I believe, never been applied for; owing to the people not being, till lately, ſenſible of the advantages which might accrue to them from the culture of ſilk. From the ſucceſs of the trials which were made laſt year in this colony and Pennſylvania (a particular account of which is printed in the minutes of Aſſembly) there can be no doubt but that it would be greatly to the intereſt of the province to encourage the raiſing of that article: I cannot therefore but recommend it as a matter worthy of your particular attention; and, for the ſame reaſon, I muſt likewiſe requeſt that you would continue the bounty on flax and hemp, which is near expiring, and grant others on the making of wines and potaſh in this colony.

In providing for the ſupport of government, I would wiſh you to conſider how greatly inadequate the uſual ſalaries allowed the publick officers of this province are to the increaſed expences of living, and to the increaſed abilities of the inhabitants, ſince the time they were firſt eſtabliſhed. An ill judged parſimony has hitherto prevailed in this reſpect; but I ſhould think myſelf wanting in real regard to the province, if I did not warn you at this time againſt a conduct, the continuance of which will moſt probably be found to be as impolitic as it is unbecoming the honour of the province you repreſent. On this head I am to inform you, that it has been ſignified to me, that the Chief Juſtice having been under a neceſſity of repreſenting the inſufficiency of his ſupport to the King, His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to give him an adequate ſalary, which mark of his Majeſty's attention to the dignity and independence of that Officer, it is hoped will give great ſatisfaction;—and as it is his Majeſty's pleaſure that he ſhould no longer accept any allowance from the Aſſembly, the province will be relieved from any further expence on account of that eſtabliſhment.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

I have now only to expreſs my wiſhes, that an uninterrupted harmony and good underſtanding may prevail in all your deliberations for the publick welfare, and to aſſure you that you ſhall ever find me ready to exert myſelf to the utmoſt, in whatever may beſt promote the true intereſt of this colony.

WM. FRANKLIN.

20th August, 1772.

A STAGE from the City of Philadelphia to Baltimore-Town is now erected, very convenient for Persons travelling, or transporting Goods or Luggage to or from either Place, which will regularly go from the respective Places, at the Times and for the Rates hereafter mentioned. The Wilmington Stage Boat, kept by Bush and Foudrey, leaves the Crooked Billet Wharf in Philadelphia every Wednesday, and generally arrives at Wilmington in a few Hours; the Charles Town Stage Waggon, kept by Patrick Hamilton, leaves Wilmington every Friday Morning, and arrives at Charles-Town the same Day; and the Charles-Town Packet, kept by said Hamilton, leaves Charles-Town every Saturday, and frequently arrives at Baltimore the same Day; so that Passengers have a greater Certainty of travelling to and from Philadelphia in these Stages, and with less Expence, than in any other. On the Return, the Charles-Town Packet leaves Baltimore every Tuesday, the Stage Waggon leaves Charles-Town every Thursday Morning, and the Stage Boat leaves Wilmington every Friday. Passengers from Philadelphia to Wilmington pay Two Shillings each, from Wilmington to Charles-Town Five Shillings each, and from Charles-Town to Baltimore-Town Four Shillings each; Luggage in Proportion. As Wilmington is within Three Miles of Delaware River, and Charles-Town about 3 Miles from Susquehanna and 8Miles from the Mouth of Elk River, our Boats are very seldom, if ever, detained by low Tides or contrary Winds, a Disadvantage which some other Stages from Philadelphia to Baltimore labour under. The Certainty of this Stage and moderate Rates will, it is hoped, induce the Publick to encourage so useful an Undertaking. And as Charles-Town is situated within Thirty-six Miles of the Town of Lancaster, a proper Encouragement of this Scheme may be a Means of promoting a useful Stage between Baltimore and Lancaster, by the Way of Charles-Town, at a very moderate Expence.

The Publick may be assured, that the greatest Care and Punctuality will be observed by the Undertakers.

Orders left with Messr. Smith and Flanagan, or Mr. William Neill, Merchants in Baltimore-Town, or with Capt. Thomas Elliott at Fell's-Point, shall be executed with Fidelity. (3m)
